EXT. COSMOS OPENEING SEQUENCE

ONSCREEN: Cuisine

CARL Cuisine.

ONSCREE: By Carl Sagan

CARL (CONT'D)
By me.
(beat)
Carl Sagan.

Finish sequence.

Carl Sagan standing on the ship of the imagination.

CARL (CONT'D)
For the universe we started on a cliff face.
(beat)
For cuisine we begin outside the kitchen, on our ship...
(beat)
Of the culinary imagination.
(beat)
Wine is plentiful.
(beat)
The bread. Always fresh.
(beat)
And there's.
(beat)
A tingling.
(beat)
In the tummy.

CUT TO:

INT. KITCHEN

Carl stands behind the counter.

CARL Today.
(beat)
We are exploring the excessive caloric-content foods.
(beat)
Or as they are commonly called:
Dessert.
(beat)
(MORE)

CARL (CONT'D)
 Here on the ship of culinary imagination we can conjure up the perfect assistant.
 (beat)
 One that knows a great deal about.
 (beat)
 The sweet stuff.

GUY FIERI steps in.

GUY
 Man, this is a weird ass Chili's!

CARL
 The temperature is optimal, Guy
 Fieri.

Carl looks off in a pensive stare.

GUY
 Carl Sagan! Yeah man, it's smokin'!

CARL
 No, it's baking!
 (beat)
 A cherry pie.
 (beat)
 Now first, if you were to embark on the journey of creating a cherry pie.
 (beat)
 You would of course.
 (beat)
 Need to create.
 (beat)
 The universe.
 (beat)
 Luckily, we already have one prepared.

GUY Outta sight!

CARL
 In fact, it is all around you.

Shoot in 50mm.

CARL (CONT'D)
 (to fieri)
 It is you, my little star child.

There's a glow of light around Fieri.

GUY

Hey! Quit joking about my hair.

Guy brushes it off and waddles in place.

GUY (CONT'D)

Alright.

(beat)

So first we take the pie plate.

Carl reveals he has a clear pie plate.

CARL

A simple piece of glass.

(beat)

Made of melted silicon.

(beat)

Forged in the heat of a sun billions and billions of years ago.

(beat)

There's no telling the distance these atoms have traveled to become the vessel of delicious pie.

GUY

Outta bounds!

(beat)

That is deep!

CARL

Yes.

(beat)

Deeper than the bounds of human imagination.

GUY

We don't have time for this, man!

(beat)

We gotta make a PIE!

CARL

Nonsense, we have all the time in the known universe.

(beat)

No, it appears my floor producer is telling me we are out of time.

Music. Fake credits.

CARL (CONT'D)

I don't know what we're going to do with this universe we already prepared!

GUY
Dang! So, no pie?!
